

Submission Questions Landscape Architecture Type B Entries

Provide narrative responses for the following questions as they apply to your entry. Type your answers in the shaded box below each question.

1. State the purpose, objectives, and key components of the design. Describe how they were met by highlighting the most prominent features of this project that make it uniquely qualified for a design award.

2. When was the construction started and completed on this project?

Submission Questions Landscape Architecture Type B Entries

3. Describe any unique or innovative design/construction challenges and solutions used for this project. Specify what was used, how it was used and the effectiveness of the solution.

4. Explain how the Air Force Corporate Facility Standards and local architectural compatibility standards were applied to this design concept.

Submission Questions Landscape Architecture Type B Entries

5. Discuss improvements and regeneration of ecosystem services. Utilize the following headings to describe services and the impact on resources and maintenance costs: Hydrology, Soils, Vegetation, Materials, Human Health and Well-being

6. Describe the sustainable aspects of the design.

Submission Questions Landscape Architecture Type B Entries

7. Describe the initial cost and the projected life-cycle cost efficiency of this project.

8. Explain any major variance between the programmed amount and actual construction cost for this project.